IN MEMORY OF SHERI L. BERTO

The 1991-92 season will be memorable to fans and everyone in the Bulls organization for its joys and success. Unfortunately, those happy memories will be marked by one of the organization's saddest moments. On November 23, 1991, Sheri L. Berto passed away suddenly from undiagnosed internal bleeding while a patient at Lutheran General Hospital in Park Ridge.

Sheri, who had been Bulls Chairman Jerry Reinsdorf's long-time assistant, was a favorite among everyone in the organization. Her wonderful sense of humor and ability to bring joy to any situation will be missed even more than her considerable professional skills. In her position as Mr. Reinsdorf's assistant, Sheri had the opportunity to touch and brighten the lives of countless people from fans to heads of state. The outpouring of sympathy to her husband, Graziano, and four-year-old daughter, Tina, which followed her death was a testament to the depth of the loss which was felt with her passing.

During the balance of the season, the team wore black patches on its jerseys in memory of Sheri. When the Bulls' new training facility opened in September of 1992, it was named The Sheri L. Berto Center and dedicated to her memory. As we celebrate the opening of a new Chicago Bulls season, we take time to remember Sheri. Her life was a celebration of the joy which one remarkable person could bring to many.

Sheri L. Berto's pleasant personality brought a smile to the face of those around her. She's pictured here with (left to right) Senator Donald W. Reigle, State Representative Lee A. Daniels, and Canadian Prime Minister Brian Mulroney.

JERRY REINSDORF

Chairman

Jerry Reinsdorf assumed the position of Chairman of the Chicago Bulls in March, 1985, when he led the group which purchased controlling interest in the franchise ... at that time, Mr. Reinsdorf already had several years of experience in professional sports management as Chairman of the Chicago White Sox Major League Baseball franchise ... since assuming ownership of the Sox franchise in 1981, he has been active in the affairs of baseball serving on the Executive Council and Ownership, Long Range Planning, Restructuring and Player Relations Committees of Major League Baseball ... during his tenure as Chairman of the Chicago Bulls, the team won back-to-back World Championships in 1991 and 1992 ... Mr. Reinsdorf has also spearheaded two major new facilities for the Bulls ... in the spring of 1992, ground was broken on a new stadium which will be the home of all future Chicago Bulls basketball games and Chicago Blackhawks hockey games ... scheduled for completion in time for the 1994-95 season, the new stadium will provide a state-of-the-art facility for Bulls fans ... Bulls players can also claim a state-of-the-art facility in their new training center which opened during the summer of 1992 ... in ceremonies held at the opening, the facility was dedicated to the memory of Sheri L. Berto ... Mrs. Berto was Jerry Reinsdorf's assistant for almost fourteen years ... she had been an important member of the Bulls organization up to the time of her sudden death from undiagnosed internal bleeding while a patient at Lutheran General Hospital in Park Ridge in November of 1991 ... in addition to his sports interests, Mr. Reinsdorf is a certified public accountant, an attorney, a specialist in real estate securities, a registered mortgage underwriter and a certified review appraiser ... he was a co-founder of Balcor, a diversified real estate investment, management and development company, which was subsequently sold to a subsidiary of American Express ... in 1988, he and Robert A. Judelson formed Bojer Financial, Ltd., a land investment company ... born in Brooklyn on February 25, 1936, Mr. Reinsdorf graduated from George Washington University in Washington D.C. and went on to receive his law degree from Northwestern University ... since moving to Chicago in 1957, he has been active in many civic and charitable organizations ... his contributions to the community have been recognized by such organizations as the Interfaith Organizing Project, the American Academy of Achievement, the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, the Trial Lawyers Club of Chicago and the Chicago Jewish Sporting Hall of Fame ... Mr. Reinsdorf and his wife, Martyl, have four children and one grandchild: son David (3/25/62); daughter, Susan (1/4/65); son Michael (3/10/67); son, Jonathan (12/17/69) and granddaughter, Melissa (11/8/91).

ROBERT A. JUDELSON

Alternate NBA Governor

Robert A. Judelson is a partner of Bojer Financial, a real estate investment company ... Judelson served as First Vice Chairman and one of the founders of one of the country's largest real estate investment firms, which was a subsidiary of American Express which acted as a fiduciary in various limited partnerships and trusts, with aggregate investments in real estate of approximately $6 billion ... such partnerships have over four million individual and institutional investors ... he was founder of JMB Realty in Chicago and left in 1973 to become one of the founders of The Balcor Company ... graduate of Northwestern University ... a Director of the Chicago White Sox Baseball Team and Chicago Bulls, a former trustee of Eaglebrook School in Deerfield, Massachusetts, and of St. Andrew's Preparatory School in Boca Raton, Florida ... some of Judelson's other past affiliations include membership in the Economic Council of Palm Beach County, and membership on the Advisory Board of Sun Bank in Palm Beach County ... Bob and his wife Joan, have two children, Julie, 25 and Henry, 22.

SANFORD TAKIFF

Alternate NBA Governor

Chairman of the First Bank of Highland Park ... graduate of the University of Illinois and Northwestern University School of Law ... former Assistant State's Attorney of Cook County ... member of Board of Directors of the John Howard Society, Anti-Defamation League, Jewish Community Centers, Park National Bank of Chicago, Chicago White Sox ... With Faul Fleet, You Take Home The Trophy.

IT TAKES A WINNER to play like a winner. And, just like the NBA Championship Chicago Bulls, The Faul Fleet Group knows the thrill of bringing home the trophy.

HEADQUARTERED IN THE CHICAGO area, The Faul Fleet Group plays a consistently aggressive game in the national automotive fleet market. Year after winning year, we sell, service and deliver more cars, vans and light trucks than virtually any other fleet dealer in the country.

ALTHOUGH WE SPECIALIZE IN EIGHT in-house car and truck lines, we can put corporate drivers in virtually any vehicle that General Motors, Ford and Chrysler build.

IT MAKES NO DIFFERENCE if your business fleet is just a handful of economy vehicles that never leave the Chicago area or 5,000 luxury cars, specially-equipped pickups and tricked-out vans covering every highway in the country. Whatever your fleet needs, The Faul Fleet Group can help you purchase, operate and recycle all your vehicles at the barest minimum cost per mile.

SO CALL FAUL FLEET. We'll help you take home the trophy.

Our Name Means A Great Deal.

CALL RICK NICOLETTI, PRESIDENT
(708) 882-5306

FOR ALL YOUR DOMESTIC CAR, VAN AND LIGHT TRUCK FLEET NEEDS.

TRY A TASTE of TURANO

Founded in 1962 by Mariano Turano, the Turano Baking Company bakes the finest breads and rolls based on authentic Italian recipes which Mariano brought over from his homeland. Today, Mariano's sons, Renato, Umberto and Giancarlo, and his brother Eugenio, continue the family tradition of quality baked goods. Through extensive taste-testing and quality-control, the Turano family makes certain the rich and robust flavors inherent to genuine Italian bread are found in the entire line of Italian food products baked by the Turano Baking Company. The Turano Family invites you to try a taste of Tradition.

THE NBA SUPPORTS ITS COMMUNITY

The NBA, its teams and players share a commitment to supporting and improving the quality of life in their communities. On a national level, the NBA is involved in numerous public services initiatives.

Since 1989, the NBA and the National Basketball Players Association have worked to draw attention to this country's alarming drop-out statistics through the national NBA Stay in School program. Created to urge students to graduate from high school, the Stay in School program uses the popularity and visibility of NBA players and coaches to encourage young people to develop self-esteem, set goals, and dedicate themselves to learning.

Through public service announcements on TV and radio and other awareness-building projects, the NBA and its players also support the work of the Special Olympics, CARE, the National Committee for the Prevention of Child Abuse and Operation Prom/Graduation, a program that urges high school students to celebrate an alcohol-free prom and graduation season. The NBA also produces and airs PSAs saluting the birthday of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and celebrating Black History Month each February. During the 1991-92 season, the wives of NBA players and coaches developed a national program to highlight the importance of breast cancer screening for women.

NBA Veteran Bob Lanier speaks to a crowd about the importance of staying in school.

THE CHICAGO BULLS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Chicago Bulls receive exceptional support from our fans and the city of Chicago, and the organization recognizes its responsibility to "give back" to the community. Our commitment to Chicago is to be actively involved in programs that improve the quality of life in the metropolitan area.

CHARITABULLS®

CharitaBulls® serves as the focal point for our philanthropic efforts and community service projects. Through events such as the Shoot-the-Bull 3 on 3 Classic, FestaBulls Dinner and Auction, and an annual Tip-Off Luncheon, funds are raised for many programs that help those with the greatest need. Among the organizations and programs we support, the majority of the funds benefits the Chicago Park District Basketball Court Rehabilitation Program. This project is a five-year commitment of $1,000,000 that involves repairing/rebuilding park district basketball courts throughout Chicago. In addition, CharitaBulls' resources provide funding for the Illinois Special Olympics State Basketball Tournaments.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Throughout the year, contributions of Bulls memorabilia are given to charity organizations, community fundraisers, block parties and more. Items donated are typically used as auction items, raffle and/or door prizes. The Bulls also provide incentives in the form of posters and stickers for schools to reward student achievements. In addition, the Corporate Ticket Section Program reserves blocks of seats for every home game for charity organizations and underprivileged kids groups. Other Bulls' sponsored events include:

- Holiday Food Drive
- Chicago Sun-Times/Chicago Bulls Math and Science Program
- Chicago Bulls Hoop Shoot for Easter Seals
- Gatorade Summer Basketball Clinics
- Crohn's & Colitis Foundation "Rebounds for Research" Campaign
- NBA Wives Save Lives/Breast Cancer Awareness

The Chicago Bulls know what can be achieved when we all work together. We welcome and appreciate your support.

1991-92 BULLS SEASON SUMMARY

NOVEMBER (13-2)

The Bulls, defending NBA World Champions, began immediate pursuit of their second league title by winning 13 of 15 games in November. The Bulls were 5-1 at Chicago Stadium and 8-1 on the road, and they closed out the month with a 12-game winning streak, tying a team mark established during the 1973-74 season. There was significant movement of personnel, and, in fact, Chicago completed more player transactions during the month than it did during the entire 1990-91 campaign. On Nov. 4, guard Dennis Hopson was traded to the Sacramento Kings in exchange for guard Bobby Hansen and the Kings' second round pick in 1992. Guard Craig Hodges was placed on the injured list on Nov. 7 after undergoing surgery to repair torn cartilage in his left knee, and center Bill Cartwright was also placed on the injured list on Nov. 17 with a broken left hand. Center Scott Williams, recovering from off-season shoulder surgery, was signed on Nov. 11. As far as individual highlights, Michael Jordan was the team and NBA scoring leader (31.8 ppg), Horace Grant was the rebounding leader (9.3 rpg) and Scottie Pippen was the assist leader (6.7 apg).

DECEMBER (11-2)

The Bulls continued their winning ways in December, picking up 11 wins in 13 games. In the early part of the month, the Bulls had the team-record 14-game winning streak snapped, following a 103-100 loss at Philadelphia Dec. 7. The night before the streak was halted, Chicago downed Charlotte 114-96 to improve the team's all-time record to 1,033-1,033, the first time the Bulls had reached the .500 mark overall since 1966. Phil Jackson passed Doug Collins as the Bulls second winningest coach in team history with his 139th win, after the Bulls turned back Atlanta 122-111 Dec. 26. Individually, Scottie Pippen was tabbed NBA Player of the Week on Dec. 30, after averaging 25.6 ppg, 8.6 rpg and 8.0 apg. Horace Grant grabbed a team-high 10.6 rpg for the month.

JANUARY (14-3)

The Bulls were hot in December and they got even hotter in January as they recorded 14 wins in 17 games. All but one win during the month came during a 13-game win streak which began on Jan. 4 with a 140-96 home win over New Jersey and extended to Jan. 25 with a 114-100 home win over Houston. Michael Jordan copped NBA Player of the Week honors on Jan. 13 after leading the Bulls to four wins and averaging 32.0 ppg, 7.0 apg and 5.5 rpg. Coach Phil Jackson, who earned the right to coach the East team at the All-Star Game in Orlando, picked up his 150th career victory with a 108-102 win over Phoenix Jan. 21. Jordan and Scottie Pippen were both named to the 1992 All-Star squad. Jordan led the All-Star fan voting for the sixth straight year.

FEBRUARY (9-4)

Although the Bulls played eight of 13 games away from the friendly confines of Chicago Stadium, they still managed to win nine of the month's 13 games. Coach Phil Jackson and his staff oversaw the East team in the All-Star Game in Orlando. Jackson's appearance was the first ever by a Bulls coach at an All-Star Game. Joining Jackson at the game were Michael Jordan and Scottie Pippen, who were both selected as starters for the East. Craig Hodges was also in the spotlight at All-Star Saturday winning his third consecutive three-point championship — the only three-time winner in that event with the exception of Larry Bird. John Paxson scored his 5,000th career point on Feb. 20 during a 112-99 win at Orlando. For the month, the team leaders were Jordan (29.7 ppg), Pippen (7.4 apg) and Horace Grant (10.8 rpg).

MARCH (12-2)

An eight-game winning streak in March allowed the Bulls to win 12 of 14 games. On March 17, Chicago defeated New Jersey 90-79 for its 27th road win of the season, setting a new team record and surpassing the 1971-72 and 1990-91 squads for which each recorded 26 road wins. A 103-99 win at Philadelphia on March 8 clinched a playoff spot for the Bulls for the eighth consecutive year. Michael Jordan exploded for a season-high 51 points in a 106-100 road win at Washington on March 19. Will Perdue notched a career-high 16 points in a 113-100 win at Minnesota on March 5. The monthly stat leaders were Jordan (35.2 ppg), Pippen (7.4 apg) and Grant (10.0 rpg).

APRIL (8-2)

Chicago closed out their record-breaking season with the best record in the league at 67-15. That record is the fourth best season record of all-time. Chicago won six of its last seven games overall, eight straight at home and 10 of its last 12 on the road. Scott Williams scored his career-high 12 points and grabbed his career-high 16 rebounds on April 19 vs. Detroit as the Bulls won 103-85.

MEDIA INFORMATION

As the Chicago Bulls enter their 27th season in the league, the team appreciates the coverage and support from the Chicagoland media. We look forward to assisting the media again this season. In an effort to provide a professional work environment, the Bulls have established the following guidelines for the season:

CREDENTIALS: We will honor all reasonable requests for credentials from recognized newspapers, magazines, radio and television outlets. The only season passes that will be honored at the Stadium are Bulls season credentials and NBA season credentials. Each of those credentials will admit the bearer to the Stadium, the upstairs press box, press row and both locker rooms. However, MEDIA MEMBERS HOLDING SEASON PASSES SHOULD NOTIFY THE BULLS OFFICE IF PLANNING TO COVER A GAME IN ORDER TO RESERVE SEATING. Please make seating requests at least 48 hours prior to the game.

Individual single game press and photo credentials can be secured for accredited media members by calling the Bulls Media Services office no later than 5:00 pm the day BEFORE a game (5:00 pm Friday for a weekend game). Single passes can be picked up at Gate 3½ on the west side of the Stadium.

It is recommended that credentials be visibly worn in the Stadium to facilitate proper access to designated areas. In all cases, season and single game passes are non-transferable and any unauthorized use will subject the bearer to ejection from the Stadium and the forfeiture of the credential.

PRESS ROOM: The upstairs press box serves as the Bulls press room. Only working media with a valid credential will be allowed in the press box. The work area is equipped with electrical outlets. Media needing phones for the season or a single game should contact Tim Hallam (312/943-5800) two weeks in advance.

SERVICES: A pre-game meal will be served in the lower level of the southwest corner of the Stadium. Prior to the game, the media will also be provided with game notes and programs. All statistical services including play-by-play, quarter statistics, halftime and final box scores, and postgame quotes will be distributed at press row and in the upstairs press box. Scores from other NBA games being played will be flashed on the auxiliary scoreboards located on the mezzanine level at both the north and south sides of the Stadium. Fax service is provided before, during or after the game by Tom Wiscarz of Telesports.

LOCKER ROOM: In accordance with NBA policy, the Bulls and visitor's locker rooms will be open to the media up to 15 minutes before the game and 10 minutes after the end of the game. Only working media with a valid credential will be admitted to the locker rooms. The Bulls locker room is located on the east side of the Stadium, while the visitor's locker room is located on the west side.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Season passes will be issued to accredited photographers from Chicago daily newspapers and magazines wishing to work specific games should request single-game passes. Free-lance photographers needing credentials must submit a letter with a specific assignment from a publication.

POST-GAME GUESTS: Please be sure to list THREE choices for radio and television post-game interviews. This will assure a guest in case the first choice is unavailable.

AUTOGRAPHS: No autographs of players and coaches are allowed during media access periods.
